Did you notify anybody higher than you in the chain of command that you were issuing any policies or, I'm sorry, any procedures? A. I don't recall. Q. In your view, what's the difference between a policy and a procedure? A. A policy states the goal and mission of what we're to do, and a procedure is the day-to-day functioning of how to do it. Q. So, it would be how to carry out the policies that are in place? A. Correct. Q. Who, in terms of the policies, has the authority to issue those? A. I believe it's only the sheriff. Q. And you base that on your experience with the Putnam County Correctional Facility since 1981? A. Yes. Q. Since you've been captain, have there been any new policies issued by the sheriff as far as you can recall?	00:12:04 2 00:02:04 3 00:02:07 4 00:02:07 5 00:02:07 7 00:02:07 7 00:02:07 8 60:02:07 10 00:02:07 10 00:02:07 10 00:02:07 11 00:02:07 14 00:02:07 14 00:02:07 15 00:02:07 17 00:02:07 18 00:02:07 19 00:02:07 19 00:02:07 20 00:01:08 21 00:01:08 23 00:01:08 24	subordinates to issue down the chain of command? Did you attend the staff meetings when you were lieutenant? A. Yes. Q. Do you recall, as you slt here today, anything that you consulted with the Commission of Correction on with respect to any new procedures? A. Yeah. There was the use of suicide smocks, lobby klosks. A few others that I can't recall right now. Q. When dld you consult with the Commission with respect to the suicide smocks? A. Within the last six months. Q. And what, if anything, prompted you to do that? A. They put out a Chairman's Memorandum

But my question, though, is: If, under those circumstances, constant watch is an automatic, why then is notification to a supervisor necessary? A. Because the sergeant is responsible for the entire shift, for setting up the constant watch, getting someone to — you know, overtime, moving staff around, notifying medical, doing a referral form. Q.
